Partial elevation detail "A" showing check and guide channel assembly along with door in the closed position (face of door and frame omitted for clarity of hardware)

Partial elevation detail "B" showing check and removable portion of guide channel being removed from header while door is in hold-open position

Details on this sheet are from this area

Door and frame elevation

Hydraulic check removed from guide channel

Removable portion of guide channel

Remove three Allen socket flat head screws to detach hydraulic check

Detail "C" showing check separated from removable portion of guide channel for replacement

Face of frame omitted for clarity of hardware